DATE PREPARED 6 September 1951

1. In June 1951, Volkspolizei Dienststelle (VPD) 1772 was located in the barracks installation at 14 Sachsenstrasse, Zittau. It was organized like the other VPDs and numbered about 1,200 police. About 150 VP Kommissare and Unterkommissare of the unit were assembled for a course of instruction.
2. The VPD included a medical Abteilung which also served the VPD in Loebau. The medical Abteilung was composed of 1 police physician, 1 VP Kommissar in charge of the dispensary, 3 female police nurses, 1 civilian laboratory attendant, and about 20 medical police who were assigned to the individual components of the VPD. The medical Abteilung operated a large dispensary and a dental clinic and was scheduled to open a surgical ward.
3. The vehicles of the VPD included 1 T-34 tank, 1 armored reconnaissance car, 10 trucks, 10 sedans and 12 motorcycles.
4. The tent camp of the VPD was located near the Polish border between Niesky and Rietschen. The location had to be cleared by the Soviet kommandatura in Goerlitz, because the tent camp was located at a Soviet Army troop training grounds.
